Apni Party intensifies election campaign in Nowshera in support of Zafar Iqbal Manhas

S. Manjit Singh holds NC-PDP responsible for underdevelopment in Rajouri-Poonch

JD CORRESPONDENT

NEWSHERA: Intensifying their election campaign in favour of the Apni Party candidate for Rajouri - Anantnag parliamentary seat, the Party leaders today held separate meetings in different areas of Nowshera to garner support in favour of the Party candidate.

The campaign was led by Provincial President of the Party, and Former Minister, S. Manjit Singh in which large numbers of people participated.

These two meetings were organized by Incharge Nowshera Constituency, Vicky Sudan at Bareri and the second meeting was held at Chowki Panchayat in Nowshera that was organized by Jalaj Choudhary.

Expressing gratitude to the people for their enthusiasm towards the Party's policy and its candidate, Zafar Iqbal Manhas sahab, the Former Minister S. Manjit Singh said that he was overwhelmed by the response received in Nowshera in Rajouri District from the people from different walks of life.

He said that the Party wants to bring change in the lives of the people and to uplift their living standard by providing them equal opportunity.

He said that the underdevelopment, and poor infrastructural development in the educational and health sector across the Pir Panjal Region because of the National Conference (NC) and Peoples Democratic Party (PDP).

"These parties exploited the people emotionally to get votes. Once they formed the Govts in the past, no heed was given to the demands of the people and hence, these areas remained neglected for decades," he said, while urging the people to vote and support Zafar Iqbal Manhas sahab for a change in their living standard and the development of the region.

He also raised the issue of drug addiction, and its smuggling that has spread addiction among the youth and played with the future generation.

"Our aim is to protect the youth and give them a bright future to strengthen the growth of Jammu and Kashmir. The educated youth are the strength of the society and therefore, we shall work to eradicate the drug menace from the society and guide the youth towards a bright future," he said.
