KISHTWAR, Jul 21: The Women Development Cell and NCC (SD/SW) Unit of Government Degree College Kishtwar, in collaboration with the District Legal Services Authority (DLSA) Kishtwar, organized an awareness programme on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, 2012. The event was held under the patronage of Prof. Basharat Iqbal, Principal of GDC

Kishtwar, who graced the occasion as the Chief Guest.

The programme began with a formal welcome address by Prof. Asma Javaid. The key resource persons from DLSA—Vinay Kumar, Sandeep Kumar, and Sanveer Kumar—enlightened the audience on various aspects of the POCSO Act.

Vinay Kumar gave a detailed overview of the Act, its origin, and its legal significance. Sandeep Kumar elaborated on its various sections and emphasized the role of parents, teachers, and society at large in raising awareness and preventing child abuse. Sanveer Kumar highlighted the importance of legal service institutions such as NALSA and their commitment to ensuring access to justice for the underprivileged.

An interactive session followed, during which students actively engaged with the speakers and gained valuable insights into their legal rights and responsibilities.

Addressing the gathering, Principal Prof. Basharat Iqbal reflected on the challenges confronting society today, the erosion of traditional values, and the pressing need for awareness and education in a rapidly changing world.

Prof. Sonika Sen, Convenor of the Women Development Cell, conducted the proceedings of the event, while the vote of thanks was delivered by Prof. Prithvi Raj, In-charge of the NCC Unit.
